

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mr. Klavs Arnoldi Holm

Born	21 November 1953 in Copenhagen
1980	M.A. in Political Science, Aarhus University
1980	Entered the Danish Foreign Service
1981	Head of Section, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (EC's Development Policy)
1986	First Secretary, Royal Danish Embassy, Paris (EC's Sector Policies)
1989	Head of Section, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (EC Economic Matters)
1993	Counsellor, Danish Permanent Representation to the EU, Brussels (Ambassador's Co-ordinator, Press Relations)
1996	Head of Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (WTO, OECD, Globalisation, USA, Canada, Japan, Australia, New Zealand)
2001	Minister (Deputy Ambassador), Royal Danish Embassy, London (Security Policy, Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran, Transatlantic Relations, British Internal Politics, Embassy's Administration)
2005	1 st of September Ambassador to Singapore (accredited to Australia, New Zealand and Brunei)
2007	Under-Secretary for Public Diplomacy, Ambassador, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2012	Under-Secretary for Arctic Affairs, Ambassador, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2013	Ambassador to the OECD and UNESCO, Paris
2018	Ambassador to Athens and Nicosia

Books and lectures on EU matters, WTO, Negotiating Skills

Commander of the Order of the Dannebrog, 1st degree (Denmark 2011)

Order of the Sacred Treasure (Japan 1998)

Officier de l'Ordre de Merit National (France 1989)

Hobbies: Politics, history, sports.

Mr Holm is married to Tove Dindler Holm (born 1953) and has 1 son (born 1981) and 2 daughters (born 1985 and 1988).